THEATRES BOOKER WASHINGTON THEATRE 23rd and Market

BURNS AND COMPANY PUT OVER A HOTTER COOLING GOOD SHOW AT THE B. W.

The officers they come, the better they are seems to be the rule with Sandy Burns and Company, playing a return engagement at the Booker Washington Theatre this week. The comedy has to do with the wedding of Ida Nilsson, played by Mary Davis and the rivalry between "Ashes," Sandy Burns, and the fat-headed groom, Fred Hart. Sam Russell is comical as the "parson," and Bonnie Belle Drew, as the fat-headed mother, is a typical comedy character. The entire company takes part in the ceremony, "Ashes" finally breaks in. There are several specialty numbers and the show is full of entertaining and amusing. The opening is a new kiddies' dance by the girls, "Ashes" in a "home brew" row, "Queen of Egypt" is a lively dance by four girls, Mary Davis, Sam Russell, Helen Penn and Marguerite Bolden. Jackson and Craig, with Misses Davis and Penn, also have an excellent number in "Too Tired." The "Milk" and its three bells is a humorous sketch. Miss Drew, assisted by Helen and the girls, sang a big hit, "Don't Stop Loving Me Now" after the wedding. First and good show is brought to a close with a song and dance ensemble.

LAFAYETTE PLAYERS PRESENT "RETRIBUTION" NEXT WEEK

The famous Lafayette Players, with Evelyn Greely and Pedro de Cordoba, will present a new four act drama, "Retribution," at the Booker Washington Theatre next week beginning Monday.

This is the same talented quartet in combination that won distinction in two previous engagements here, and, needless to say, introduction is given without saying that it is a rare treat in its story for the admirers of high class art next week. There will be no audience in audience prices.

MISS LENA WILLIAMS "THE SCYNDOPATED QUEEN" AT THE GAYETY THEATRE NEXT WEEK

Miss Lena Williams, "The Scyndopated Queen" will be a featured attraction at the Gayety Theatre next week, beginning with Sunday matinee. She will play the role of a singer for the Columbia Phonograph company making Columbia Records, and singing and dancing. Among her latest song successes being "It Makes No Difference Now," "Toss and Squash Mash of Mine," "Get to Get My Hugs Now," and "You Don't Believe I Love You." A pleasing combination of comedy, melody, burlesque and vaudeville is promised in the forthcoming presentation of "The Scyndopated Queen." With fifteen principal characters, the largest number ever seen in any one show, twenty-seven established numbers, twenty-seven sketches, and fifteen changes of costume, an attractive show, featuring music and dance, is promised to be some show.

THE PICTURE THEATRES

THE JESTAMERE

"The Jestamere" is the story of a modern adventure who found a jazz life with powers greater than that of the old. The picture is the best of the theatre at the Jestamere. "Cheep Kinner" will be presented on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Lillian Rich and Cullen Landis are the leading stars. It is a comedy drama of today, laid in New York City and nearby, and deals with the hard world of the jazz age but life and love and youth. It tells a story with a punch and with a lesson and tells it with "brilliant" comedy. A show check in a "differ" "show girl" who loves a home and the things that go with it. It is a story in the hectic atmosphere of a jazz life. The picture is a comedy, and the husband, as well as told in a gripping manner that holds interest to the very finish.

Wanda Hawley is the featured star in "The Desert Shells," the special feature of the Jestamere.

The "Red Lily" will be shown on Thursday and Friday. Hanna Novarro and Paul Benjamine are the stars in this story of adventure in Paris.

THE STAR

Franklin Brent in "Silk Stocking Soak" will be the star. REV. J. L. CASTON CALLED TO CHURCH IN CANADA
THE KUX KLAN
Government Wants No American Racial And Sectarian Activities To Disturb Its Fellowship.

Associated Negro Press.
TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 25.—Hon. Lincoln Goldie, provincial secretary of Ontario has within the last few days dismissed the petitions of two Ku Klux Klan organizations for a charter to organize in Ontario. In dismissing the last petition the secretary said: "There will be no charters for Ku Klux Klan in Ontario and declined to discuss the question further."

The Sovereign Knights of the Ku Klux of Ontario was the common name adopted by the petitioners, who came from Windsor, and who stated that they would organize as soon as a charter was received. Their petition was returned that week.

The Ontario Grand Lodge of the K. K. of Canada, initiated about 300 under the direction of a Klansman from Windsor, and who stated that they would organize as soon as a charter was received. Their petition was returned that week.

Prejudice In Washington, D. C.

Staff Correspondence.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 25.—Over in Cleveland, Ohio, some years ago, there was a minister whose attitude and demeanor were such that the townfolk dubbed him "Don't." He was a Dutchman, and his name was almost forgotten but his name, like the spirit of John Henry, goes marching on. On the other side of the Atlantic, in the capital of the United States, there is a similar attitude. It is "Don't," and it is "Don't" in a different way. It is "Don't" in a way that is more subtle, more insidious, more dangerous.

The Rev. J. L. Caston, D. D., of 1241 West Belle Place, was the one who has been called to assume the pastorate of the White Community Church of Winnipeg, Canada, at the earliest possible date. The news came as a surprise to his many friends here as it was generally expected that he would accept a position in St. Louis, due to the fact that he has been sought here. NEGRO HEALTH WEEK APRIL 5

Associated Negro Press.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 25.—Negro Health Week, April 5-12, will be observed this year April 5-12, according to a statement made by Dr. R. B. Moten, principal of Tuskegee Institute. Every community in the United States is urged to observe this week. The purpose of the week is to bring attention to the health of the negro people. The week will be observed in many ways, including lectures, demonstrations, and other health-related activities.

NOTES ON LABOR CONDITIONS

By CLIBNA GREEN.
For the Associated Negro Press.
Let us turn to the conditions in the coal mines of Pennsylvania. The conditions are generally poor. The miners are paid low wages and work long hours. The safety conditions are also poor. There is a need for better labor conditions in the coal mines.
